

Note: Non-communicable diseases account for increasingly more deaths, with injuries and Ischaemic heart disease the largest components.