

Acknowledgements

The State of Caribbean Public Health Report is dedicated to the health of the Caribbean people and is intended as an informational tool to build their resilience in the face of immediate and increasing threats to health.

The Caribbean Public Health Agency (CARPHA) would especially like to thank personnel in Caribbean countries and territories who have contributed by providing public health data, reports and research on which the current report is based.

CARPHA expresses special thanks to Dr Caroline Allen and Dr Renee West for their extensive work and valuable contribution to the report. Thanks also to the members of the CARPHA Oversight Committee and Sub-Committees for their guidance and management of the project. These are:

Oversight Committee

Chair: Dr Ingrid Cox-Pierre, Technical Officer Planning and Coordination
Dr Rosmond Adams, Head of Health Information, Communicable Diseases, and Emergency Response
Ms Christine Bocage, Senior Technical Officer, Food Security and Nutrition
Ms Shelly-Ann Hunte, Research Scientist
Dr Cheryl Jones, Behavioural Scientist
Ms Avril Isaac, Communications Officer
Dr Karen Polson-Edwards, Assistant Director – Surveillance, Disease Prevention, and Control

Surveillance Sub-Committee

Led by Dr Rosmond Adams
Ms Angela Hinds, Senior Technical Officer, Health Information, and Data Analysis
Dr Avery Hinds, Senior Technical Officer, Communicable Diseases, and Emergency Response
Ms Lorraine Francis, Technical Officer, Communicable Disease, and Emergency Response; and Ms Sarah Quesnel-Crooks Programme Coordinator, IDRC Caribbean Cancer Registry Hub.

Childhood Obesity

Led by Ms Christine Bocage
Dr Glennis Andall-Brereton, Senior Technical Officer, Non-Communicable Diseases
Dr Andrea Yearwood, Senior Policy Analyst.

Vector Borne Diseases

Led by Dr Karen Polson-Edwards
Ms Shermaine Clauzel, Programme Manager, Environmental Health and Sustainable Development Department
Dr Ingrid Cox-Pierre
Dr Gabriel Escobar Gonzales, Virologist, Division of Surveillance, Disease Prevention, and Control
Mr Lyndon Forbes-Robertson, Head, Environmental Health and Sustainable Development Department
Dr Lisa Indar, Head, Tourism, and Health Programme
Mr Rajesh Rago, Senior Technical Officer – Vector Borne Disease, Prevention, and Control

We are also indebted to Dr. C. James Hospedales, Executive Director, for his foresight and leadership in the creation of this Report and valuable comments on drafts. Thanks also to other CARPHA technical officers and support staff who have kindly contributed information and enabled the work.

The authors would also like to express their gratitude to the Pan American Health Organization/World Health Organisation, Trinidad and Tobago Office for their assistance with the section on the International Health Regulations. We are grateful to Ms Marie Beach, Healthy Schools Coordinator, Government of Bermuda; Dr Isabella Francis-Granderson, Public Health Dietician, Lecturer, University of the West Indies, St Augustine; Ms Maisha Hutton, Executive Director, Healthy Caribbean Coalition; and Ms Moira Lindsay, Regional Programme Director, Population Services International for their assistance in providing information on some of the regional initiatives presented in this Report.